The petitioners apprehend eviction from their properties without hearing on the ground that they are in possession of Government land.

2. The learned Government Pleader assures that no orders would be passed without giving an opportunity to place their objections and without considering such objections. He also submits that orders passed would be communicated to the petitioner.

3. In the above circumstances, the writ petition is disposed of with a direction that if the orders to be passed are adverse to the petitioners, they shall be given two weeks time to take further proceedings against such order.
